U.S.A.

MINE

Words by HARRY F. KEATING

Music by CHAS. E. BRAUN

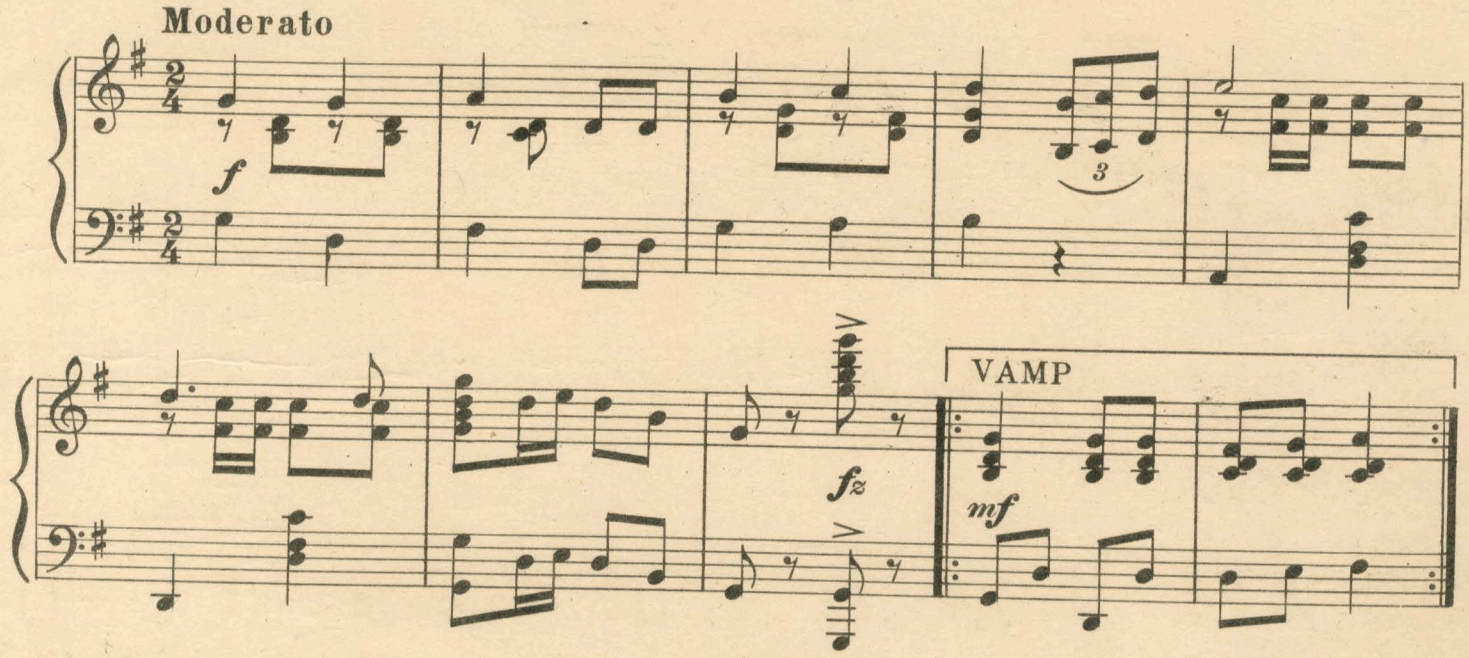
PRICE
50 CENTS

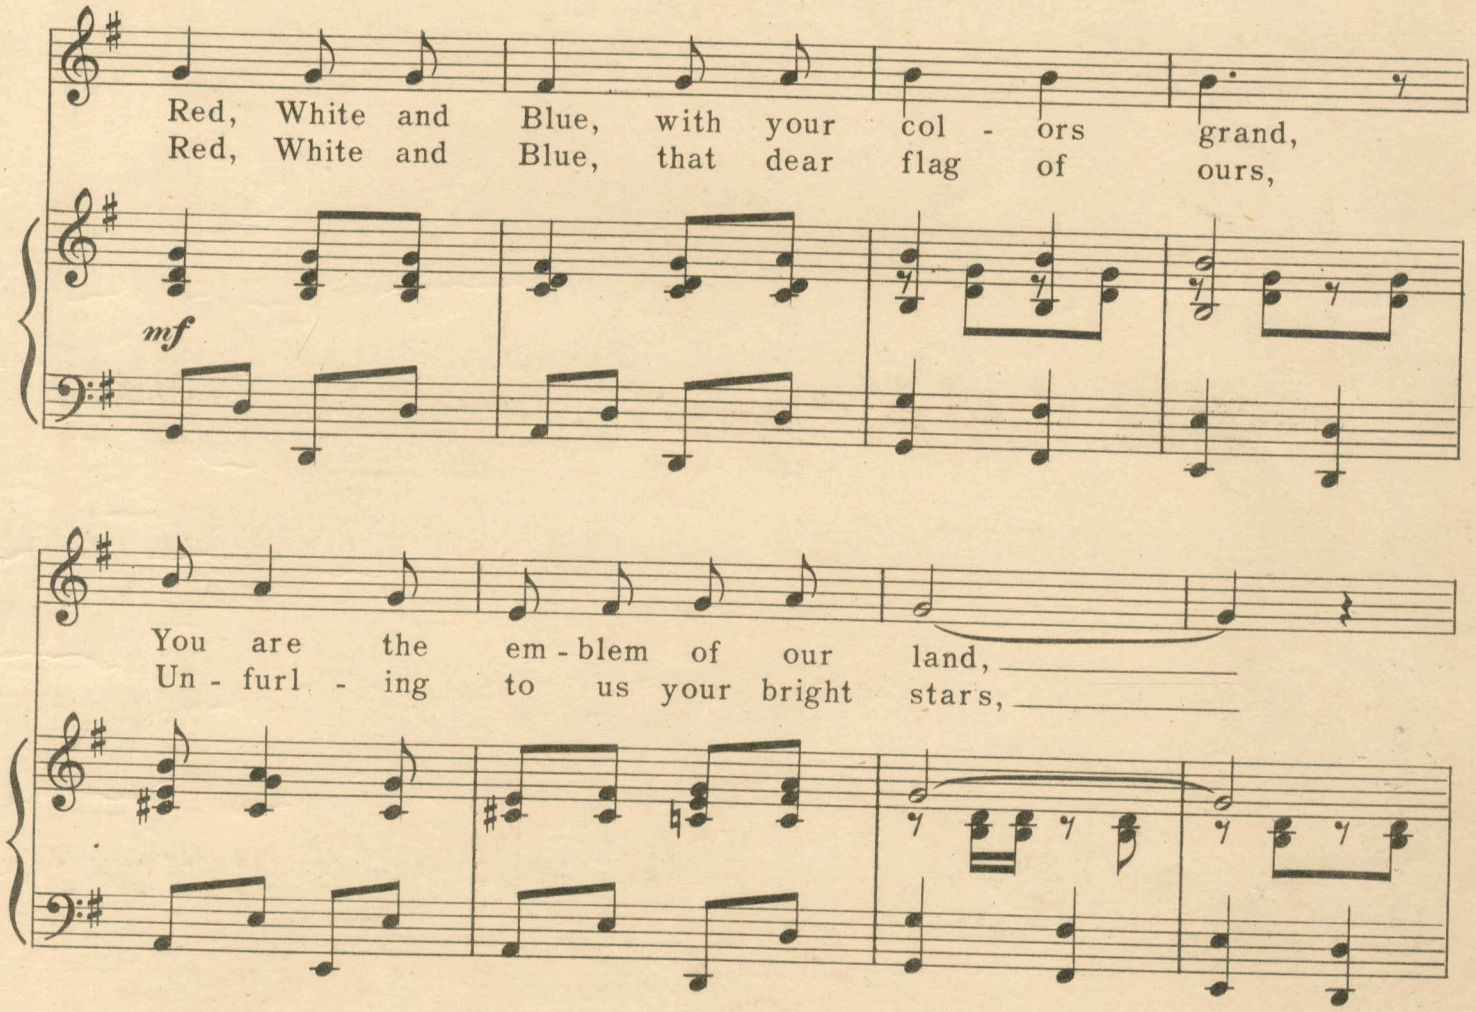
SEDALIA, MO.:
Published by A. W. PERRY'S SONS, Music Publishers.

U. S. A. Mine.

Words by HAROLD F. KEATING

Music by CHAS. E. BRAUN





Red, White and Blue, with your col - ors grand,
Red, White and Blue, that dear flag of ours,
mf
You are the em - blem of our land,
Un - furl - ing to us your bright stars,

Copyright MCMXVIII by Harold F. Keating.

Your bars and stars are most beau - ti - ful to me,
We i - dol - ize you, for you we'd glad - ly die,

Wave on Old Glo - ry, you stand for Lib - er - ty.
Wave on Old Glo - ry, for - ev - er proud-ly fly.

CHORUS

Home of sweet lib - - er - ty, land

p – f

of the free, U. S. A., I'd nev-er be content - ed when a - way from thee, You gave me

health, you gave me wealth, and hap - pi - ness di - vine

And I love you still, and I al - ways will, dear old

U. S. A. mine. mine.

1 ad lib. 2